WASHINGTON

Introducing Roxbury's Newest Condominiums

2451 Washington Street

Property Details:

- 1-3 bedrooms
 - Some units include private outdoor space
 - All have garage parking

The 2451 Washington Street Condominiums are positioned at the corner of Washington Street and Shawmut Avenue in Dudley Square in Roxbury, a neighborhood boasting rich diversity and a bold collection of newly developed buildings. City dwellers who wish to live in close proximity to downtown will thrive in Roxbury, one of Boston's oldest sections.

The bright and airy living spaces inside the 16-unit complex are multifunctional and inviting. Open-concept kitchens include stainless steel appliances, quartz countertops, and glass or mosaic tile backsplashes, while the bathrooms are appointed with high-end finishes and Porcelanosa tiles. Some units offer private outdoor patios. The first floor includes the lobby, maintenance office, community room, HVAC room, mail boxes and parking.

The 2451 Washington Street Condominiums are located within blocks of Dudley Station and the MBTA Orange Line, plus the Jackson Square and Ruggles stops just beyond the neighborhood's boundaries. The Silver Line takes riders into the South End in 10 minutes and downtown in 24 minutes.
